

What plan do you have for continuing contact with the source?

What possible digital security issues could the source face?

What possible digital security issues could the journalist face?

What are the digital security issues facing the newsroom?

What are the physical security risks of meeting the source?

Do you need to do a risk assessment and a communications plan?
Why? Why not?